Hatshepsut was the most prominent female ruler of ancient Egypt.
For more than twenty years, she held the reigns of Egypt's government at a time when Egypt was the most powerful state in the ancient world.

The Multicultural Audience Development Initiative

The Metropolitan Museum of Art’s Multicultural Audience Development Initiative reflects the Museum’s founding mission to educate and inspire by reaching out to all of its constituencies, including the many diverse communities that comprise the tri-state area. Its objectives are to heighten awareness of the Museum’s programs and collections, to increase participation in its activities, and to diversify its visitorship and Membership.
